Grants Overview

There are four easy steps to successful grant management:

5 things your competitors don't want you to know

1. Grants really aren't that daunting
2. Writing a winning grant application can be as easy as forming a persuasive argument
3. You can receive monthly newsletters from as little as $55 a year that tell you all about available and open grants
4. You can subscribe to media feeds so that you always receive the latest news about government grants
5. There are many free guides available online that can talk you through developing a grant application
